

K-Love radio is one of the very few venues I enlist for public service information. I feel that those who are unable to participate in other "church" type forums benefit from K-Love, and that allowing the new LPFM to override the transmissions would be a grave error. God has been removed from our government and our schools, let's keep Him on the air.